

Greenkeepers Club of New England

NEWSLETTER

February, 1944

The Annual meeting of the Greenkeepers Club of New England was held Saturday evening at the Woodland Golf Club.

At the business meeting the following slate of officers was elected:

President	Paul Wanberg	Weston Golf Club
1st Vice Pres.	Homer C. Darling	Juniper Hill Golf Club
2nd Vice Pres.	George Rommell, Jr.	Formerly of Wellesley Golf Club now in armed service
3rd Vice Pres.	Philip I. Cassidy	Needham Golf Club
Secretary	Earl Polhamus	Charles River Country Club
Treasurer	John L. Counsell	Salem Country Club
Trustee for 3 years	Paul Hayden	Woodland Golf Club
Entertainment Committee	Lloyd Stott, chairman	Lexington Golf Club
Golf Committee	Arthur Anderson, chairman	Brae Burn Country Club
Auditing Committee	Arthur Cody Nicholas Bruno	Wollaston Golf Club Norfolk Golf Club

The retiring president Sam Mitchell was presented with a gavel suitably inscribed.

Arthur Cody of Wollaston, chairman, and Nick Bruno of Norfolk, runner-up were presented with trophies representing the Club Championship held at the Brae Burn Country Club.

Seventeen couples enjoyed a fine dinner and evening of entertainment. Many Greenkeepers made their first appearance in over a year.

The FEBRUARY meeting will be held at the Hotel Statler in Boston, Monday, February 7 at 7 P. M.

Dealers in Golf supplies have been invited to attend and participate in an informal round-table discussion on supplies available for the coming season and problems anticipated.

The following is the address of our second vice president:

Pvt. George Rommell, Jr.
A. S. N. 31422145
Battery D 13th Battalion
T-1722
Fort Eustis, Va.

Don't forget the February meeting at the Hotel Statler!