OCTOBER, 1951

They's something kindo' harty—
like about the atmusfere
When the heat of summer's over and the coolin' fall is here—
Of course we miss the flowers,
and the blossoms on the trees,
And the mumble of the hummin'—
birds and buzzin' of the bees;
But the air's so appetizin'; and the landscape through the haze
Of a crisp and sunny morning of the airly autumn days
Is a pictur' that no painter has the colorin' to mock—
When the frost is on the punkin and the fodder's in the shock.

These words of James Whitcomb Riley express the editor's sentiments and maybe yours, regarding the beautiful fall we are enjoying. Every year the New England Autumn seems to improve. Certainly this one is tops.

A better fall day could not be found for the Shanahan Greenkeeper-Pro tournament, Monday, October 1, at Brae Burn. The course was well groomed and in excellent condition from every tee to green. Thirty-five teams participated.

The winners were:

1st.	H. Rethman—J. Thoren	83-70
2nd	H. Mucciarone—Bill Eznicchi	86-71
3rd	H. Darling—H. D. Darling	83-74
4th	ties.
	C. Capozzi—Bob Crowley	90-75
	S. Mitchell—Ted Adams	86-75
	G. Tedesco—Vin Obey	78-75
	M. Francis—Dave Hackney	83-75
	A. Cody—John O'Grady	80-75

Mark Twain said, "When in doubt tell the truth" . . . The editor is very much in doubt about getting this Newsletter to you unless it is made very brief. So the following space is reserved for what might have been said. It so happens that the editor is in the midst of building another nine holes at Juniper Hill and "makin' hay while the sunshines".

The next and final outdoor meeting of the season will be held Monday, October 29, at Wianno Golf Club, Wianno, Mass. (Send your card for reservations). Luncheon promptly at 12 Noon. Not much time for 18 holes unless the time schedule is followed. This is the Club Championship of the season too, so you long hitters be there.

How do you get there? George Rommell says, "From Boston, or vicinity, follow Route 128 to 18 to 28 to 6 at Buzzards Bay. Follow 6 to the Mid-Cape Highway until you come to a sign saying Marstons Mills and Osterville 5 miles. (God Help you if you miss this sign) Route 149. At Osterville follow Parker Road to the golf course on this road. From Worcester take Route 140 to 28 to 6 etc. Read your road map, follow your nose and we'll be seeing you.
