DOUGLAS ROLLAND v. PETER FERNIE.

This professional match took place on Wimbledon Common on the 22nd inst., starting from the Iron House, twice round the course. We understand that the match was promoted by an enthusiastic supporter of the game in the London Scottish Golf Club. Rolland again demonstrated that he has few, if any, equals in any branch of the game, whether for long and straight driving, marvellous approaches, or in putting on the green. Fernie played a sound, straightforward game, as he always does; but whether from a feeling of being over-matched, or what, certain it is that he failed to do himself justice. Although the game was played in a very strong and chilly north-east wind, with slight rain falling nearly the whole time, there was a very good following of spectators, who highly appreciated the marvellous play on the part of Rolland. Had it not been for bad luck on the greens, Rolland would certainly have scored a record round on his second attempt, and, considering the course was new to him and is not easy at present, his score as it is is of great excellence.

First Round.—Both led off well with good drives, but Rolland always had the advantage in distance throughout the play, and the hole was won by Rolland in 4 to 5. Second hole was halved in 4. Third hole was won by Rolland in 4 to 5, through Fernie having a rough lie for his third stroke. The fourth was won by Fernie through Rolland lofting his ball into the enclosure in front of hole. The fifth was won by Rolland through Fernie going much past the hole in his drive, and not recovering well. The sixth was won by Rolland in 5 to 6, although both were well to the hole in 2; but putting badly cost Fernie the hole: 3 up to Rolland. The seventh and eighth were both won by Rolland in 5 to 6 each, also the last, in 4 to 6, through Fernie playing his second into the ditch beyond the hole: 6 up to Rolland at the turn. The tenth hole was won by Fernie in 3 to 4, and eleventh and twelfth halved in 4 each. At the thirteenth Fernie came to great grief amongst the whins, and gave up, Rolland holing out in 5, making him 6 up again. He also won the fourteenth in 5 to 6, and halved the fifteenth and sixteenth in 5 and 3 respectively. Rolland also won the seventeenth hole in 6 to 7, although he played his third into the long grass alongside the Windmill enclosure, thereby losing two strokes getting out. The eighteenth was halved in 5, making Rolland 8 up on the first round. Scores:—Rolland—Out, 4 4 4 6 4 5 5 5 4=41; in, 4 4 4 5 5 5 3 6 5=41; total, 82. P. Fernie—Out, 5 4 5 4 5 6 6 6=47; in, 3 4 4 lifted 6 5 3 7 5 —.

In the second round, Rolland played with exceptional brilliancy, having got accustomed to the course, and although Fernie at starting made a better fight of it, the match was won by Rolland at the tenth hole, when 10 up in the score. Both started this round with good drives, and, thanks to the objectionable incident called a "stimy," Rolland only made a half of it in 5. The second was well played, and halved in 4. At the third hole, in spite of Rolland making, for him, an unaccountably bad tee shot, he recovered himself by a grand approach and halved in 4. The fourth hole was remarkable for the excellent approaches made by both, but Fernie, by good putting, won by 4 to 5, thereby reducing the lead to seven holes. The fifth was, however, won by Rolland in 3 to 4, again making him 8 up. The sixth hole was a very extraordinary hole on the part of Rolland. His drive carried him over the fifteenth green, away to the right, with the whins close in front of him. Taking his iron, he played a most wonderful shot, which carried him clean over the whins, and landed him with a good opening to the hole, about 100 feet away. With his mashie, he made such an approach on to the green that he holed the ball, making him out in the unprecedented number of 3 strokes. Fernie who had had bad luck in the matter of lies, did not play out the hole. Rolland 9 up. At the seventh hole, Rolland had bad luck in the lie of his tee shot, and Fernie, playing splendidly, won by 4 to 5. This turned out to be Fernie's last chance however, as at the eighth hole, in spite of Rolland having to lift his ball, after his drive, out of the water on to the road, thereby losing a stroke, he yet won by 5 to 6. Fernie's play for this hole after his drive was, however, unaccountably weak, and he ought to have won it easily. The ninth hole was halved in 5, although Rolland's third shot upon the green, struck the hole without going in; and using his iron for the next putt, failed to hole out. Rolland now dormy. The tenth hole won by him in 3 to 4, won the match by making him 10 up with 8 to play. Continuing the remainder of the round, Rolland displayed exceptional skill, especially in his long and straight driving against the strong wind. On several occasions his putt on the greens struck the holes without going in, otherwise his score would have been even still more wonderful than it is. Score:—Rolland, out 5 4 4 5 3 3 5 5=39; in 3 4 4 5 5 5 3 4 5=38, total 77; Fernie, out 5 4 4 4 4 lifted 4 6 5; 4 4 5 lifted 5 5 3 5 6.

ROLLAND v. TAYLOR AT MITCHAM.

If Rolland was seen in brilliant form on Tuesday at Wimbledon, he was very far from being in his game on Friday at Mitcham, where he played J. Taylor, of Winchester, a thirty-six hole match for a small purse presented by the Prince's Golf Club. In addition to being a good deal off his game, particularly from the tee, Rolland was quite unfamiliar with the course, while Taylor had wisely taken the precaution to play round twice the previous day. Those two facts combined were a serious handicap for Rolland against Taylor's play, which was steady, consistent, and several times brilliant, especially in his approaches to the hole with the mashie. The result of the first round was to leave Rolland 6 down—a most unusual position for him to occupy, though it is but fair to say that he had, of the two players, probably the harder luck in the matter of lies. In the afternoon he played in something like his old form, and very nearly made a close match of it; but the leeway he had to make up was too great and too arduous for even a player of his calibre, and the match closed in favour of Taylor by 3 and 1 to play. Mr. Mure Fergusson and Mr. J. R. Hutchison acted as umpires.

The first hole out, with a strong wind dead ahead, was halved in 5, chiefly owing to Rolland's fine second shot with the cleek and a good putt, for he practically missed his tee shot. Taylor used his driver to the second hole, which is a short one, and got beyond the flag. Rolland was well up with his cleek, but lay in heavy, rough ground, bordering the green to the right; he fozzled his second badly, Taylor lying within two club lengths of the hole, and though Rolland tried to recover by a good putt, he failed, and Taylor won in 3 to 4. Taylor had a beauty for the next hole off the tee, Rolland pulling away to the left, in a deep ugly ditch, which he got well out of. He had a hanging ball, and in attempting to get it away with the brassie he topped, the ball striking the rushes and only going a few yards. The cleek took him up to within an easy pitch of the green; but no effort now availed, as Taylor got easily home in 6 to 8. Off the next tee Rolland sliced his shot, and got under a whin to the right of the green, ran over the hole with his second, laid Taylor a stinnie with his third—an obstruction which Taylor played round with great judgment and dexterity in the like—and won the hole in 3 to 4. Three up for Taylor. The next hole was also won by Taylor chiefly through a piece of good putting, and though Rolland, by a bold putt with his wooden putter at the next hole, tried to reduce his opponent's lead, he just missed it, and got his second half. At the next hole Taylor was again straight as an arrow off the tee, while Rolland pulled his ball into the whins, being scarcely able to clear the clump with his niblick. Taylor landed in the mud on the edge of the small pond at the green, and, chiefly owing to the mass of dirt adhering to the ball, he lost the hole in 6 to Rolland's 5. Again Rolland sliced and got in the whins, a really bad shot, and his cleek shot also buried him in the whins, which necessitated lifting and losing a stroke. Taylor eventually won a somewhat indifferently played hole in 6 to 7, Rolland winning the next hole, after very much the same kind of play, in 5 to 6. Taylor 3 up at the turn.

Homeward the play on Rolland's part did not improve very much. He lost the two next holes after some indifferent give-and-take play, and his progress homeward, as it had been outward, was to him practically a series of disasters so far as retrieving his position was concerned. He finished the first round 6 holes down—a somewhat chastening experience for so fine and hitherto victorious a player. The scores were:—Taylor, out, 5 3 6 3 3 4 6 6=42; home, 4 4 7 4 5 5 4 5 5=43; total 85. Rolland, out, 5 4 8 4 4 4 5 7 5=46; home, 5 5 5 7 6 4 7 5 5=49; total 95. Taylor 6 up.

On starting for the second round, Taylor half-topped his ball off the tee; Rolland's drive was a beauty. Taylor had played his third before he got up to Rolland's first. Rolland, seeing he was safe to win the hole, played short of the bunker in his second, and holed out in 5 to Taylor's 6. Going to the second, Rolland was on the green with his cleek, while Taylor was a little short, and to the right, in some rough ground. Taylor played a beautiful approach, laying his ball dead; the hole was halved in 3. It looked now as if Rolland was going to show a little of his well-known form. Driving off to the third hole, Rolland led off with a raking long drive. Taylor's shot was equally good, though not so far. This hole was halved in 6. The fourth, fifth, and sixth holes were halved. The seventh hole, which is 400 yards, Rolland won in 3, two drives and a putt the length of the green. The eighth and ninth holes were halved—each in 5—making Rolland 4 holes down and 9 to play. He won the tenth, however, in 4 to 5; halved the eleventh in 4, and won the twelfth in 4 to 5. The thirteenth hole was halved in 4. Rolland won the fourteenth in 4 to 5. Taylor won the fifteenth in 4 to 6. The sixteenth was halved in 4, leaving Taylor dormy. Taylor won the seventeenth in 4 to Rolland's 5, winning the match by 3 up and 1 to play. Scores:—Rolland—Out, 5 3 6 4 4 4 3 5 5=39; in, 4 4 4 4 4 6 4 5 7=42; total, 81. Taylor—Out, 6 3 6 4 4 4 5 5 5=42; in, 5 4 5 4 6 4 4 4 5=41; total, 83.

When, nearly four years ago, this journal was started, a doubt was expressed among a section of golfers that we would have difficulty in filling the columns with material of interest exclusively to the game and its players. That was not our opinion, otherwise the enterprise, difficult and delicate as it has been, would not have been undertaken. The last four years have witnessed an enormous development of the game, not only in England, Wales and Ireland, but in the home of Golf itself, north of the Tweed, and in our colonies beyond the sea.

Contributions of much interest to golfers have reached us from all parts of the world. A few years ago, the number of Golf clubs barely reached a couple of hundred, and these were scattered pretty widely over the globe. To-day, the number of Golf clubs has increased in such a rapid ratio in this country alone, that it is difficult to find a town of any considerable size without its Golf green. The number of players has mounted from a few thousands (and these for the most part exiled Scots), until to-day players must be numbered by several hundreds of thousands; and scarcely a week passes without our columns chronicling the birth of three or four new Golf clubs, either on private domain land, or on public commons.

Taking these facts into account, along with the other important fact that a revival of the highest professional Golf is taking place, notably in England, we think that, looking to the future progress of the game, to the many important questions affecting its government and regulation waiting for discussion and solution, and to the paramount consideration that golfers have a newspaper entirely devoted to their interests, the time has now come when the originally modest scope of our programme ought to be enlarged. We have, therefore, decided, as was announced last week, to publish the paper twice a week, on Tuesdays and Fridays. By this means we shall be enabled to supply prompt and detailed news of all important contests wherever they take place, together with all items of interest, either arising from points of divergence in the discussion of the game, or between players in the course of play. The success of the alteration can only be justified by the hearty co-operation of all golfers who are interested in maintaining the high traditions of the game, or in promoting much-needed reforms in its government. To all golfers who have so kindly supported us hitherto, we make an earnest appeal to continue that support in the new arrangement. As hitherto, the policy of the paper will be, "Nothing extenuate, nor set down aught in malice"; but whether support be cheerfully given, or capriciously withheld, we shall, in the best golfing spirit at our disposal, play to the last hole undaunted!

A very useful little novelty, which all golfers ought to carry in their pockets, is a six-inch stymie measure, sent out by A. Teen and Co., club-makers, 18, Eastcombe Terrace, Blackheath. It not only serves the purpose of measuring disputed stymies, but it can also be used as a book or paper cutter. It is called "the Stymie Gauge and Paper Cutter," and consists of two thin strips of celluloid or ivory, joined together in the centre by an eyelet, and so capable of being folded into very small bulk and stowed away in the waistcoat pocket. The stymie measure is exceedingly useful as well as ingenious.

In our notice of the "Golfer's Guide to the Game and Greens of Scotland," last week, we omitted to notice, in addition to the other features of the book, a very interesting article, contributed by the Rev. John Kerr, Minister of Dirlerton, entitled "Golf in East Lothian." Residing as he does in the heart of a famous golfing district, a keen, stout-hearted player, member of many of the East Lothian clubs, no writer more capable than he could have been selected to supply that instructive chapter. Starting from North Berwick, golfers can play over eight or nine Golf courses, all within easy reach in the district; and if they consult Mr. Kerr's itinerary, a good many of their initial difficulties will be smoothed away.

Golfers and Golf club executives in search of appropriate novelties for prizes at competition times cannot do better than send to Messrs. Henry Fitter and Sons, jewellers, Hylton Street, Birmingham, either for one of their hall-marked silver match-boxes or cigarette-cases. Each article has in front a hand-painted figure of a golfer, coloured in detail, driving a ball off the tee. In order to suit the tastes of ladies, the same firm has silver card cases showing a lady golfer in full golfing costume. These articles are certainly a welcome variation to the stereotyped reward of cups, medals, spoons, and candlesticks at large competition meetings of Golf clubs.

J. Ross, the professional at the Seaford Golf Club, in playing round the Newhaven Links on May 23rd, made a record for the course, going round in 77, made up as follows:—Out, 42; home, 35.

The professional of the Wallacey Golf Club, R. W. Kirk, made a record score in a match with one of the members, played a few days since. The figures were as follows:—Out, 6 5 3 3 5 5 3 5 3=38; home, 4 5 6 5 4 4 4 2 4=38; total, 76.

A special house dinner will be held at the Golfers' Club, Whitehall Court, on Thursday, June 7th, at which Mr. Horace G. Hutchinson has kindly consented to preside.

Mr. Mure Fergusson, playing on May 22nd on the Ranelagh Club Links, established a record by going round the course in the fine score of 69. The details of the score were as follows:—Out, 4 3 4 3 6 4 2 5 4=35; home, 4 4 4 4 3 3 4 3 5=34; total, 69. Mr. Fergusson made this score by good, sound Golf, without any luck, excepting at the seventh hole, where a slightly wide shot was retrieved by a beautiful approach shot which went into the hole.

J. Hunter and J. Scott, Prestwick, playing an exhibition game over Ayr Golf Links, each established new records over Willie Fernie's, which was 75. The details were:—J. Hunter first round, 5 3 5 3 3 3 4 4 4=34; second round 5 5 3 4 3 4 4 3 3=34, total 68. J. Scott, first round, 5 3 4 5 4 4 5 5 2=37; second round, 5 4 3 4 3 4 4 5 3=35, total 72. The game was witnessed by a large following.

On Monday last, R. B. Wilson, and Linton of Beckenham, paid a visit to Blackheath, and joined in a foursome with Mr. C. Pett Triscott, and W. J. Walker (professional to A. Teen & Co.) Wilson partnered Walker, and Mr. Triscott took Linton. The match was a very close one from start to finish, Wilson and Walker eventually winning by 2 holes up, their score for the twenty-one holes being 115, Mr. Triscott and Linton not being far behind with 122. The greens being very hard, putting was very difficult, and as many strokes were lost in consequence, the scores may be considered very creditable for foursomes.

On Friday afternoon, 18th inst., old Tom Morris made a score which is well worthy of being recorded, and shows that the grand old golfer has still a good deal of life in him, despite his advanced age. Playing a three-ball match with Mr. Everard and Captain Stewart, Tom did the round in 86. This score, for Tom, is very creditable, as next month he enters his seventy-third year. The details were:—Out, 4 5 5 5 5 5 5 3 4=41; in, 5 3 5 5 7 5 4 7 4=45, total 86.

A correspondent writes from Florida, U.S.A.:—"Here I in vain try to get the native to take an interest in the game. His ideas of amusement, however, are narrow, consisting (1) of sitting on steps of a store whittling a stick and swapping lies; (2) chewing tobacco and spitting; (3) whipping a poor horse through the sand while he sits in a buggy smoking a rank cigar; and (4) playing poker with bad whisky accompaniment. They specially abhor everything British, and look on me as a hopeless idiot because I take my morning tub. A Floridan never has a bath. Golf is as hopeless here as cricket or football, so I have to content myself with swiping up and down an open space near my house consisting of very white sand, which is poor fun."

Seven ladies from the Lytham and St. Anne's Golf Club have entered for the Ladies' Golf Championship, to be played for on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, at Littlestone in Kent, on the coast, about eight miles from Folkestone. The seven are—Mrs. Miller (Singleton Park); Mrs. Catterall and Mrs. Ernest Catterall (St. Anne's); Miss Mugliston and Miss May Mugliston (Lytham); Miss Turnbull (Manchester); and Miss E. Terry (St. Anne's). Last year, the Championship was played for, for the first time at St. Anne's-on-the-Sea, and was won by the Lady Margaret Scott (Cotswold Club), beating, in the final, Miss Isette Pearson (Wimbledon Club). Miss E. Terry (Lytham and St. Anne's Club), and Miss Florence Carr (Formby Club), were also in the semi-final. There are nearly forty entries for this year's play.

The Alfreton Golf Club, which was only started last year, is in a flourishing condition. There is a large number of members, including many ladies. The captain is keen, and the committee work well. To the secretary, Mr. L. S. Stroyan, is mainly due the successful formation of the club, and to his unwearying labours its present state of efficiency is due.

The links of the Hitchin or North Herts Golf Club, situated within ten minutes' walk of Hitchin Station, and five minutes from the centre of the town, though not much known, have been in existence some two years. The course a nine-hole one, now compares favourably with others in the counties of Hertfordshire and Bedfordshire. The distances between the holes vary from 170 yards to 330 yards, and much care has been taken by the green committee in placing the tees so as to give each hazard its proper value. The hazards consist of a road and iron fence, crossed three times, a hedge and ditch, twice, a dry ditch, twice, besides a pond and several ditches, which are not crossed, but which catch the crooked strokes. The links are good for inland links, the majority of the holes being on common land, and the greens show immense improvement. Great credit is due to the hon. secretary, Mr. William Lucas, of The Firs, Hitchin, who originally laid out the course, and on whom all the work of improving and keeping the greens in order has practically fallen.

A very strong gale has been blowing at Littlestone. The links are in excellent condition for the Ladies' Championship which is in progress, and there is a large gathering of lady golfers. There are sixty-four entries for the Championship. No byes. The first half of the draw does not contain such strong players as the second half. Lady M. Scott has drawn Mrs. Catterall, who tied last year with Miss Pearson, which will be a most interesting match. Miss Pearson plays Miss Rowlandson; Miss Starkie Bence meets Mrs. Ryder Richardson; Mrs. H. C. Willock plays Mrs. Wilson Hoare (also a good match); Miss Blanche Martin plays Mrs. Laurel; Mrs. Sanderson, Miss Jeffreys; Mrs. Gordon Dill meets Miss Dawkins. There are some very valuable prizes presented by the Ladies' Golf Union, and by Mrs. R. Hedderwick, for competition apart from the Championship.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

MUCKROSS.—In the far North you could not do better than select Dornoch, which has a magnificent course, and is very quiet. There is also Nairn, Forres, Fraserburgh, John o'Groats, Lochmaddy, Lossiemouth, South Uist, Schiehallion, Strathpeffer, Tain, and Wick. In the West you have Machrihanish and the Machrie course in Islay.

NORTH HERTS.—No formality necessary. Make the links known by matches and competitions, and have the results recorded in this journal.

F. WATSON.—There are several publications which give the information you want, but the best is the "Golfing Annual," published by Horace Cox, Bream's Buildings, Chancery Lane.

EGO.—Canterbury—Mr. A. J. Macfarlane, 6, St. George's Place, Canterbury; Folkestone—Mr. H. A. Beeching, Lloyds Bank, Folkestone; Guildford—Jarvis Kenrick, Golf Club, Guildford; Manchester—Mr. R. Maclure, 3, Atwood Road, Didsbury, Manchester; Winchester—Rev. J. T. Branston, Winchester; Eastbourne—Mr. W. R. Richardson, Carelew, Eastbourne.

TOMMY MORRIS'S RECORD BEATEN.

To the Editor of GOLF.

SIR,—The following notice of Tommy Morris's record score appears in Boys for May, 1894, page 490:—"Spofforth on his best day, or in his best season, was incomparably the finest bowler that ever donned cricket shoe. What cricketer will ever forget that famous first appearance at Lords? No event in the record of ball games—in our memory at all events—ever created such a furor. The nearest approach to it that I can think of is when in golfing circles it was passed from mouth to mouth, in awe-struck whispers, that Tommy Morris had done the medal round at St. Andrews in 7,774. But as Golf had not then taken the deep hold on the public fancy that it since has done, the excitement in that case was more or less of a local character. Moreover, since poor Tommy's death, we believe that his record has been broken."

Yes, sir, that record has been broken, and broken by me. My friends generally, and those persons who know my play, may believe it or not as they please, but I declare to you, on the faith and honour of a gentleman, that I once did St. Andrews in 7,773. I found the course a little tiring, it is true, and there was one bunker ("The principal Nostril," I think it is called) that took me a good many strokes to get out of, but the day was fine; the sea calm; the larks singing all round me; the breeze soft and sweet; the landscape most beautiful; I had a capital caddie; and, on the whole, I enjoyed my outing immensely, and all the more that I felt myself to be going so strong. There was one drawback, however, to my several hours of entire happiness on St. Regulus's historic links. Just behind me two persons were playing, who, I found afterwards, were "scratch" players belonging to the Royal and Ancient Club. These so-called gentlemen seemed to wish to have the course all to themselves, and their manners not only lacked the repose which stamps the caste of Vere de Vere, but were most vulgar and aggressive; while as for their language in the latter part of the round—well, sir, I will content myself with calling it as regrettable as it was discreditable and disgraceful. Of course, I took no notice of them, but I hope they will read this and learn what I think of them.

Perhaps I may add that I have not managed to beat Tommy Morris's record since, though I have often "donned" Golf shoes in the hopes of doing so.

I am, Sir, &c.,

less 6=110; Mr. F. J. Rowe, 117, less 6=111; Mr. J. Gilliland, 116, less 4=112; Mr. J. G. Dickson, 118, less 6=112.

The match for the Madras silver medal presented to the Calcutta Golf Club by the Madras Golf Club, in 1881, for annual competition took place on April 27th and 28th last. Out of sixty entrants only thirty-one completed their game, and in the end Mr. A. J. Pugh was found to have won with two good rounds of 48 and 47, which, with his handicap, let him win somewhat easily, though Mr. R. D. Murray's steady play for 42 and 43, ran the winner very close. Mr. Murray's 42 on the new round included an 8 for the fourth hole, but for which he might probably have scored the record of the green. The following are the best scores handed in:—

The April monthly handicap of the Douglas Club produced a good field. To assist the handicapping there were two classes. The winners proved to be:—

First Class.—First prize, Mr. J. H. Quine, 102, less 16=86; second prize, Mr. J. Cubbon, 115, less 28=87.

Second Class.—First prize, Mr. H. Whiteside, 126, less 32=94; second prize, Mr. C. T. Cowell, 135, less 31=104; Mr. J. Groome, 144, less 40=104.

After a series of rounds Mr. T. Kneen, H.K., has proved himself the champion player of the Douglas Club, and has won the annual medal. The club has secured the services of Pat. Ward, of Musselburgh, as professional and greenkeeper.

FAKENHAM GOLF CLUB.

The spring meeting took place on May 8th, 9th, and 10th, at Hempton Links. The Hamon d cup, with Mr. Curtis's prize, was won by the Rev. A. H. Upcher. The Rev. H. C. Rogers won the Hastings cup, and the captain's prize for "Bogey" competition was won by Dr. Belding. Dr. Belding's cup for the best aggregate score was taken by Mr. Curtis.

May 8th. Scores:—Rev. A. H. Upcher, 99, less 15=84; Captain H. A. Digby, 97, less 12=85; Rev. H. C. Rogers, 96, less 9=87; Rev. J. R. B. Owen, 101, less 12=89; Mr. O. S. Curtis, 94, less 4=90; Dr. Belding, 104, less 10=94; Mr. A. S. Bidwell, 115, less 12=103; Sir L. J. Jones, 133, less 20=113. Others made no returns.

May 9th. Scores:—Rev. H. C. Rogers, 95, less 9=86; Mr. O. S. Curtis, 93, less 4=89; Rev. J. R. B. Owen, 103, less 12=91; Mr. J. H. Mannall, 104, less 13=91; Mr. J. F. Charc., 108, less 8=100; Mr. A. J. Mulholland, 109, less 8=101. Others made no returns.

The match against "Colonel Bogey" resulted as follows:—Dr. Belding, 3 down; Rev. A. H. Upcher, 4 down; Mr. O. S. Curtis, 7 down; Mr. A. J. Mulholland, 7 down; Captain H. A. Digby, 8 down; Mr. J. H. Mannall, 9 down; Mr. H. Newson, 12 down.

May 10th. The prize for the ladies was won by Miss Campbell with a scratch score of 74.

GREAT YARMOUTH GOLF CLUB.

The Whitsuntide meeting took place on Saturday, 12th, Monday, 14th, and Tuesday 15th. The weather on the last two days was all that could be desired, but on the opening day torrents of rain fell, and this, accompanied by a high wind, certainly was against low scoring, the best scratch score being 90, which was returned by Mr. F. S. Ireland. On Monday, with a fine day, the scores were still, however, high, the lowest scratch being returned by Mr. W. O. S. Pell and Mr. S. Young, namely, 91. These two gentlemen consequently tied for the Great Yarmouth gold badge. The tie was played off on Tuesday, when Mr. Pell was declared winner with a score of 92, Mr. Young being 93. Mr. A. L. Jockel, in the "Bogey" competition on Tuesday, returned a very good card (82), thus tying with "Bogey." Mr. Jockel must be congratulated on his performance. The Yarmouth Green of to-day is certainly a very different one from what it was a few years ago. From being one of the easiest it has become one of the most difficult in England. Mr. Pell returned an 82 at Easter under, perhaps, slightly more difficult conditions than Mr. Jockel, so that 82 for scratch is tolerably correct. The committee have wisely decided to close the new first, second, and eighteenth holes for the present, as the severe sand storms of last winter have still left their traces. The holes have certainly very much improved since Easter, and the grass is getting well through the sand, but still a few months' rest will do no harm. There is plenty of space at Yarmouth, so that the temporary shutting up of these holes will in no wise shorten the course, a rearrangement of holes being all that is necessary to provide an excellent alternative course. The new holes on the extension will, of course, remain open. They are all that can be desired. The following are the scores of the three days' play:—

Saturday, May 12th.—The Great Yarmouth cup challenge, for the best net score made under handicap, on either Saturday or Monday. Scores:—

HUNSTANTON GOLF CLUB.

The Whitsuntide meeting of this club was held on Monday and Tuesday, May 14th and 15th. The weather was perfect on the first day, but on the second a strong north-east wind and sea-fog exercised a prejudicial effect on the scores. There was a good gathering of players, and the condition of the course reflected great credit on J. Hughes, the greenkeeper, and the new ninth hole is a great improvement to the already sporting character of the course. The following are the results:—

Monday, May 14th, Residents' challenge cup, handicaps under 12, and optional sweepstakes:—Mr. P. C. Barker, 95, less 9=86; Mr. C. G. Gregson, 104, less 12=92; Mr. G. H. Bramley, 98, less 4=94; Rev. W. H. Deane, 107, less 12=95; Mr. E. Carroll, 106, less 10=96; Rev. T. Peyton, 106, less 8=98. The rest were over 100 or made no returns. Mr. Barker won the challenge cup and memento and second share of sweepstakes; and Mr. W. S. Thompson, 114, less 30=84, took the first share of the sweepstakes.

Tuesday, May 15th, Club cup and optional sweepstakes. Scores under 100:—Rev. H. D. Barrett, 102, less 12=90; Mr. E. Carroll, 103, less 10=93; Mr. W. W. West, 113, less 18=95; Mr. G. Carrick, 115, less 18=97; Rev. W. H. Deane, 112, less 13=99. The Rev. H. D. Barrett won the Club cup and memento, and Mr. E. Carroll the first share of the sweepstakes, Mr. West taking the second share.

HAYLING v. RICHMOND.

This match was played on the Hayling Links on Whit Monday, May 14th. The weather was lovely, and after a very pleasant day's Golf, Hayling were left winners by 18 holes—16 holes up on singles in the morning and 2 holes up for foursome play in the afternoon. Scores:—

LIMPSFIELD CHART GOLF CLUB.

Seldom has "lovely Limpsfield" been seen to less advantage than during three at least of the four days fixed for the spring meeting of its Golf Club. Cold winds and heavy showers prevailed during Wednesday and Thursday, and sadly interfered with the enjoyment of the lady members of the club, to whose competitions these two days were given.

The winner of the president's challenge cup, on Friday, 11th, was found in a young player who but recently had a handicap of 19, but who, by the help of some opportune leisure time which enabled him to play his two rounds well-nigh every day, combined with great natural aptitude for the game and (best of all) unfailing imperturbability, has within some three months developed into a most promising golfer. The runner up was only one point behind, and, in fairness to him, it must be stated that while the winner had the good fortune to play his round in the morning before the rain began, Mr. Clement Leveson-Gower fought his battle amid the very thickest and blindest of the storm, and his 93 was, under the circumstances, a highly creditable performance.

A good field entered for the handicap on the Saturday, when the weather was far more propitious. The first prize was won by Mr. Dendy Watney, and the second by the hon. secretary of the club, the Rev. F. W. Parsons. The temporary greens are still in use, and the scores consequently not quite as good as they should be. Subjoined are the results:—Ladies.—May 9th, competition for Mr. Norman Watney's challenge prize: Miss Lilian Bartlett, 87; and Mrs. Urmsion, 87, tied; Miss D. Boyson, 93; Miss K. Watney, 96; Miss Watney, 98; Miss Bartlett, 98; Miss Board, 105; Miss Lee, 108. On playing off the tie Miss Lilian Bartlett, with a good of 80, secured the prize.

May 10th, handicap competition.—Miss D. H. Boyson, 84, less 8=76; Mrs. Rooke, 82, less 4=78; Miss M. Watney, 96, less 18=78; Miss A. Stewart, 93, less 12=81; Miss K. Watney, 88, less 5=83; Miss Board, 96, less 12=84; Miss Bartlett, 98, less 12=86; Mrs. H. Stewart, 92, less 6=86; Mrs. Urmsion, 95, less 8=87; Miss Watney, 92, less 1=91.

Gentlemen.—May 11th, competition for Lieut.-Col. Warde's challenge cup:—Mr. A. N. Watney, 92; Mr. Clément Leveson-Gower, 93; Mr. Charles Leveson-Gower, 106.

May 12th, handicap competition:—Mr. Dendy Watney, 92, less 13=79; Rev. F. W. Parsons, 93, less 9=84; Mr. A. C. Bruce, 97, less 12=85; Mr. R. Brodie, 95, less 10=85; Hon. H. A. Lawrence, 99, less 14=85; Mr. J. O. Scott, 104, less 16=88; Mr. A. W. Woodroffe, 106, less 18=88; Mr. C. T. Parsons, 101, less 12=89; Mr. R. M. Tabor, 99, less 9=90; Mr. F. Jefferson, 101, less 10=91; Mr. Norman Watney, 116, less 18=98.

ACHES AND SPRAINS!—When a Peer out in the mountains of Chinese Tartary gives a Panamik coolie some Elliman's Embrocation to rub in for a sprain, and the coolie drinks it by mistake, and exclaims, "It is good," you have evidence that Elliman's Embrocation is harmless. Proof:—"To one of the Panamik coolies, who had sprained his knee, I gave some Elliman's Embrocation, in one of our tin teacups, and thought I had made him understand he was to rub it in, but to my horror, and before I could stop him, he swallowed the lotion, and in a very short space of time was sprawling on his stomach, choking and spluttering; but as soon as he recovered his breath, he got up and salaamed, saying it was very good. So, as he seemed quite pleased and none the worse, I did not enlighten him as to his mistake."—Page 13. Quoted from "The Pamirs," by the Earl of Dunmore, F.R.G.S., 1893. Elliman's Universal Embrocation for Rheumatism, Lumbago, Sprains, Bruises, Cuts, Sore Throat from cold, Chest Colds, Stiffness, Cramp, Bronchitis, &c., is an excellent good thing. 1s. 1½d. and 2s. 9d. LITTLESTONE GOLF CLUB.

The Whitsuntide meeting of this club took place on Saturday and Monday, May 12th and 14th. Thanks to the recent rainfall, the greens were in perfect condition. Strong wind with rain, however, made low scoring on the Saturday difficult; but the conditions on the Monday, when brilliant sunshine, with little wind, prevailed, were conducive to good returns being made, as the results show. There was a large attendance of members and their friends, the visitors, however, not being so numerous as heretofore, owing to the new regulation on the subject. The starting arrangements worked satisfactorily, and the comfort of all, both at the first tee and throughout the green, was secured.

For the Tubbs' handicap challenge cup for the best aggregate of the two morning medal rounds, Messrs. L. Worthington Evans and F. Faithfull Begg (the late captain), each with a handicap of 14; tied at 92, 80, and 89, 83=172 respectively, and in playing off, Mr. Evans proved the winner by 1 stroke.

For the Purves scratch gold medal (aggregate prize for the year) the lowest scores returned were :—Saturday—Mr. R. Lawson, 91; Mr. F. L. Rawson, 93; Mr. A. J. Stanley, 96. No returns from Messrs. H.

T. Wright, L. Worthington Evans, H. A. Gardom, Bulmer Howell, R. Belton, F. Faithfull Begg, R. S. Jones, J. Hax, G. B. Concanon, and F. J. L. Ogilvy. Monday—Mr. R. Lawson, 90; Mr. F. L. Rawson, 96; Mr. A. J. Stanley, 92; Mr. H. T. Wright, 93; Mr. L. Worthington Evans, 94; Mr. H. A. Gardom, 95; Mr. Bulmer Howell, 96; Mr. R. Belton, 97; Mr. F. Faithfull Begg, 97; Mr. R. S. Jones, 97; Mr. J. Hax, 98; Mr. G. B. Concanon, 99; Mr. J. L. Ogilvy, 99.

The monthly medal was played for in the first round on Saturday, and was secured by Mr. F. L. Rawson with 93, less 6=87; and on Monday the winners for the twelve months preceding competed for the club gold medal, Mr. J. H. Hedderwick proving to be the winner with 90, less 5=85. On Monday afternoon, for the Bannock challenge bowl, under handicap limited to 18 strokes, the hon. secretary, Mr. C. Wintle returned the best score, 95, less 16=79. Appended are the details of the two days' play :—

LYTHAM AND ST. ANNE'S GOLF CLUB.

On Saturday, the 12th inst., the Whitsuntide meeting of the Lytham and St. Anne's Golf Club was commenced, and the event of the day was the first of six competitions for a handsome prize presented by Mr. S. A. Hermon, of St. Anne's. The day was as fine as could be wished, but there was a very strong north-westerly wind which told much against the long holes, and caused the scoring to be somewhat disappointing. The best gross scores were Mr. A. H. Doleman, (South Shore), 95; Mr. J. E. Pearson (Liverpool), 97; Mr. J. Marcus Rea (St. Anne's), 99; Mr. A. B. Scholfield (Disley), 100. The best net scores up to 100 were:—Mr. E. Redfern (St. Anne's), 106, less 15=91; Mr. F. W. Walker (Bury), 111, less 20=91; Mr. M. Taylor (Blackburn), 106, less 14=92; Mr. T. H. Miller (Singleton Park), 103, less 9=94; Mr. F. Merriman (Knutsford), 104, less 10=94; Mr. J. E. Pearson (Liverpool), 97, less 2=95; Mr. W. H. Harrison (Lytham), 102, less 7=95; Mr. G. Haig (Manchester), 104, less 8=96; Mr. A. H. Doleman (South Shore), 95, plus 2=97; Mr. D. Tonge (Disley), 104, less 7=97; Mr. W. H. Hampson (South Shore), 105, less 8=97; Mr. A. Entwistle (Bolton), 108, less 11=97; Mr. C. R. Hemingway (Sheffield), 111, less 14=97; Mr. J. Marcus Rea (St. Anne's), 99, less 1=98; Col. C. A. Birley (Bartle Hall), 115, less 17=98; Mr. A. B. Scholfield (Disley), 100, less 1=99; Mr. J. Hargreaves (Blackburn), 103, less 4=99; Mr. T. C. Midwood (Manchester), 110, less 11=99; Mr. E. M. Whipp, (St. Anne's), 112, less 13=99; Mr. James Mellor (St. Anne's), 105, less 5=100; Mr. J. A. F. Eltoft (St. Anne's), 106, less 6=100; Mr. T. Muirhead (Bowdon), 109, less 9=100; Mr. P. Musgrave (Bolton), 111, less 11=100. The result was a tie for the win between Mr. E. Redfern and Mr. F. W. Walker, which was arranged to be decided by the first round of Monday's play. The first and second optional sweepstakes were divided by Mr. E. Redfern and Mr. F. W. Walker, and the third was taken by Mr. M. Taylor.

On Monday the weather was very unfavourable. The prize to be competed for was the Lancashire Fusiliers' cup, presented by the officers of the Lancashire Fusiliers (3rd and 4th Battalions, Bury), in 1891, the handicap being limited to 18 strokes. The cup is held by winner (who receives a handsome silver memento given by the club) for one year. The best gross scores on Monday were Rev. C. Billington (Lytham), 93; Mr. A. H. Doleman (South Shore), 95; Mr. J. M.

Rea (St. Anne's), 96; Mr. G. C. Greenwell (Poynton), 96; Mr. J. E. Pearson (Liverpool), 99; Mr. W. Newbigging (St. Anne's), 99; Mr. R. B. Hardman (St. Anne's), 100; Mr. J. Bradbury (South Shore), 100; and the net scores up to 100 were as follows:—Mr. J. Bradbury (South Shore), 100 less 14=86; Mr. R. B. Hardman (St. Anne's), 100, less 11=89; Rev. C. Billington (Lytham), 93, less 3=90; Mr. H. T. Parke (Withnell), 102, less 12=90; Mr. G. C. Greenwell (Poynton), 96, less 5=91; Rev. J. K. Jacques (St. Anne's), 104, less 13=91; Mr. F. Merriman (Knutsford), 102, less 10=92; Mr. H. G. Langley (Manchester), 106, less 12=94; Mr. J. M. Rea (St. Anne's), 96, less 1=95; Mr. W. Newbigging (St. Anne's), 99, less 3=96; Mr. M. S. Bles (Manchester), 111, less 15=96; Col. C. A. Birley (Bartle Hall), 113, less 17=96; Mr. A. H. Doleman (South Shore), 95, plus 2=97; Mr. J. E. Pearson (Liverpool), 99, less 2=97; Mr. A. E. Fair (Lytham), 115, less 18=97; Mr. C. H. Bentley (St. Anne's), 116, less 19=97; Rev. J. G. Denison (Church), 102, less 4=98; Mr. James Mellor (St. Anne's), 103, less 5=98; Mr. F. Topp (Bolton), 111, less 13=98; Mr. G. Worthington (Altrincham), 109, less 10=99; Mr. E. Redfern (St. Anne's), 113, less 14=99; Dr. Eason (Lytham), 107, less 7=100. The winner of the prize and memento, therefore, was Mr. J. Bradbury.

The spring meeting for the lady subscribers to the Lytham and St. Anne's Golf Club took place at St. Anne's-on-the-Sea on Wednesday, May 9th, over the ladies' links, the course being twice round. The six ladies who had won competitions for the prize presented by the ex-captain (Mr. J. Marcus Rea), also played off for possession under special handicap. The afternoon was fine, the greens in good order, and a very fair number of competitors turned out to play. The scores under 120 net were as follows:—Miss Mugliston (Lytham), 88, less 5=83; Miss Hermon (St. Anne's), 98, less 14=84; Mrs. Miller (Singleton Park), 100, less 13=87; Miss Turnbull (Manchester), 96, less 6=90; Miss Christine Fisher (Lytham), 115, less 21=94; Miss E. H. Salt (Lytham), 115, less 20=95; Miss E. Lythgoe (St. Anne's), 95, plus 1=96; Miss Hargreaves (St. Anne's), 121, less 25=96; Miss M. Mugliston (Lytham), 102, less 4=98; Miss Constance Salt (Lytham), 113, less 15=98; Mrs. Eason (Lytham), 100, less 1=99; Mrs. E. Catterall (St. Anne's), 96, plus 4=100; Mrs. Brown (St. Anne's), 98, plus 2=100; Miss M. Lythgoe (St. Anne's), 97, plus 4=101; Mrs. J. B. Parkin-on (Cheadle), 127, less 25=102; Mrs. Stewart (Lancaster), 116, less 13=103; Mrs. G. Parkin-on (St. Anne's), 123, less 17=106; Mrs. Catterall (St. Anne's), 120, less 11=109; Mrs. E. Harrison (St. Anne's), 130, less 20=110; Miss Maud Salt (Lytham), 129, less 17=112; Miss Thompson (St. Anne's), scratch, 115.

The scoring under the special handicap for the ex-captain's prize was as follows:—Mrs. Miller (Singleton Park), 100, less 16=84; Miss Turnbull (Manchester), 96, less 9=87; Miss M. Mugliston (Lytham), 102, less 7=95; Miss M. Lythgoe (St. Anne's), scratch, 97; Miss Maud Salt (Lytham), 129, less 22=107; Miss Terry (St. Anne's), no return.

The results of the day's play were, therefore, as follows:—Miss Mugliston won the silver Salver and gold memento with her fine gross score of 88 (the best score with which this prize has ever been won), and also took first sweepstakes; Mrs. Miller won the ex-captain's prize (net score, 84), the second handicap prize (net score, 87), and the third sweepstakes; Miss Hermon won the first handicap prize (net score, 84), and the second sweepstakes. The meeting was a very pleasant and successful one throughout.

Ladies' Competitions.—The first of six monthly competitions for a Prize, presented by Mrs. William Cross, of St. Anne's-on-the-Sea, to the lady subscribers of the Lytham and St. Anne's Golf Club, was played on Wednesday afternoon, the 23rd May, over the ladies' links at St. Anne's, twice round, eighteen holes in all. The day was very favourable. The leading scores were:—Mrs. E. Catterall (St. Anne's), 93, plus 4=97; Miss M. Lythgoe (St. Anne's), 96, plus 4=100; Mrs. Brown (St. Anne's), 98, plus 2=100; Mrs. G. Parkin-on (St. Anne's), 117, less 17=100; Miss Hargreaves (St. Anne's), 125, less 25=100; Mrs. F. W. Catterall (St. Anne's), 118, less 11=107; Mrs. Eason (Lytham), 127, less 1=126. Several ladies did not send in any returns. Mrs. E. Catterall, therefore, put in the win.

MELBOURNE GOLF CLUB.

Championship meeting.—A three days' hole competition against "Colonel Bogey" was held on the links at Caulfield during the Easter holidays for two prizes value £3. 3s. each. One was given for the best aggregate scratch score, and the other for the best aggregate handicap score. Mr. Anderson won the former, and Mr. T. S. Brentnall the latter, each with three holes down. The four best aggregate scratch scores were made by Messrs. Anderson, Balfour, Stanley, Brentnall, and M'Intyre, who therefore had to play off a tournament match for the championship. Messrs. M'Intyre and Brentnall played off the first tie. The former, starting very strongly, did the first six holes in 29. Although Mr. Brentnall played a good game he was four down at the turn, and lost the match by 5 up and 4 to play. The second tie was a very keenly contested one. Mr. Anderson was unfortunate at the start, getting into the road at the second and the bunker at the third, allowing his opponent to get 3 up. Mr. Balfour then had his turn of ill-luck, and lost his advantage over the eighth; slicing his ball into the road at the ninth he turned one down. The game was all square at the eleventh. Two bad putts at the twelfth and fourteenth on the part of his opponent put Mr. Anderson 2 up, who, however, did not keep his advantage, for driving into the whins at the fifteenth, and missing an easy putt at the sixteenth, put them all square again. At the seventeenth Mr. Anderson drove wildly, and his opponent laid himself dead with a fine mashie stroke in 2. Mr. Balfour was then dornie one. At the last hole the game was very exciting; both players, being well up in their seconds, made good approaches. Mr. Balfour's ball was above the hole, and being frightened of over-running it, he putted short, and missing his next putt, lost the hole. Being all square, the players had to play on. Mr. Balfour getting into the road at the next hole, lost the match. Messrs. Anderson and M'Intyre, the present and ex-champion, had then to play off the final tie. The first four holes were halved. Mr. Anderson took the lead at the fifth, but a dead stimie enabled Mr. M'Intyre to get even with him at the sixth. Mr. Anderson won the seventh and ninth, and turned 2 up, which he increased to 4 at the eleventh, and won the match at the fourteenth. Mr. Anderson thus takes the championship from Mr. M'Intyre, and holds the honour for the ensuing six months and the Champion Cup. He also receives a gold medal.

Ladies' Medal.—On Thursday, March 22nd, the ladies played for their third medal, which resulted in a win for Mrs. Masson. The following are the best scores:—Mrs. Masson, 80, less 18=62; Miss M. Officer, 74, less 10=64; Miss L. Armstrong, 87, less 20=67; Mrs. Parkinson, 84, less 14=70; Mrs. Lillies, scratch, 85; Miss Davie, 100, less 10=90; Miss B. Baird, 106, less 12=94; Mrs. Burn, 113, less 14=99.

The usual monthly medal competition was held on the links at Caulfield on Saturday, April 7th, and resulted in a win for Dr. MacFarland. The following are the best scores:—

ROYAL EASTBOURNE LADIES' GOLF CLUB.

The spring meeting of this club was held on Tuesday and Wednesday, May 8th and 9th. The greens were in excellent condition, but a strong wind prevailed on both days.

On Tuesday Miss M. C. Reid carried off the monthly medal; also the prize presented by Miss Starkie Bence, for the best score under handicap. In the afternoon Miss A. L. T. Drake and Miss Starkie Bence, both scratch players, won the foursome prize for the best score against "Captain Bogey," presented by Mr. W. S. Sheldon.

On Wednesday Miss Starkie Bence was again successful in carrying off the scratch medal and prize awarded by the club. The challenge bowl and prize, given by the Royal Eastbourne Golf Club for the best score under handicap, was won by Mrs. Franks, after playing off the tie with Miss G. Mills. The aggregate prize, presented by the captain, Miss A. T. Drake, fell to Miss G. Mills. In the afternoon Mrs. Dowson won the putting prize, given by Miss McLaren; and Miss M. E. Phillips the driving prize, presented by Mrs. Ryder-Richardson. Distance, 140 yards. Scores:—

ROYAL GUERNSEY LADIES' GOLF CLUB.

The ladies of the above club played on May 10th for their gold monthly medal, and spoon for long handicaps. Heavy rain was falling all the time, which prevented several ladies from making any returns. The principal scores were:—Miss Bigge, 139, less 35=104; Miss

E. Richardson, 113, less 6=107; Miss A. Rowley, 150, less 40=110; Miss Kirkpatrick, 128, less 1=127; Miss M. Field, 133, less 2=131; Miss Richardson 148, less 13=135. Miss Bigge took medal and sweepstakes, and Miss A. Rowley won the long handicap spoon.

ROYAL ISLE OF WIGHT GOLF CLUB.

The Whitsuntide meeting of this club commenced on Saturday, the 12th inst., in half a gale of wind, when Mr. L. T. Le Marchant succeeded in winning the monthly medal with a net score of 96.

On Monday, in brilliant weather, the club prize was competed for by members receiving from 1 to 24 strokes, and never have the fine views from this links appeared more charming. In playing though the course it was difficult to realise the ordeal it had passed through during the drought of last year, in such good condition was the turf. The following is the score:—Mr. F. Johnson, 99, less 18=81 (club prize); Mr. C. Davenport-Knight, 102, less 13=89 (first sweepstake); Mr. Davenport-Knight, 115, less 24=91 (second sweepstake); Dr. Reid, R.N., 94, less 1=93 (third sweepstake); Mr. N. F. Fisher, 98, less 3=95; Mr. H. Mitchell, 120, less 22=98. Captain Beecher, Colonel Lumsden, Major Le Marchant, Mr. F. Crooke, Mr. F. H. Peek, and others, either made no return or were over 100.

ROYAL NORTH DEVON GOLF CLUB.

The Whitsuntide meeting commenced on Tuesday, the 15th, with the foursome tournament, under handicap, which was concluded on Saturday in fine weather. Messrs. Bradby and Quick won the first prize, two cases of silver-gilt dessert spoons, the gift of the club. After an exciting finish with the Hons. O. and D. Scott at the last hole, the latter took two-thirds of the entrances, Messrs. A. and C. Boyd receiving the remaining one-third.

The annual general meeting of the club was held on Tuesday afternoon, the president for the year, Dr. Siddall, in the chair. The club was declared to be in a most prosperous condition; seventy-nine new members were elected in 1893, and the limit is nearly reached, viz., six hundred. Notwithstanding that between £500 and £600 had been spent on structural improvements, there was a balance in favour of the club at the bank on the 31st December of over £150. The president announced the retirement from the hon. secretaryship of Col. Winterscale, owing to ill-health, caused by his recent severe attack of scarlet fever, entire rest from work being ordered. The announcement was received with great regret, and the meeting unanimously chose him as president for 1895. Major Winter was chosen as hon. secretary, and Mr. Gorton re-elected as hon. treasurer.

Wednesday, the first medal day, was a still, dull day, with an occasional sprinkling of rain. Thursday, the second day of the foursome tournament, was a hopelessly wet day, such as is seldom seen at Westward Ho! Friday, the second medal day, was a still day, with brilliant sunshine, excessively hot and oppressive, which will account for the scores not being so good as on Wednesday. This meeting, like that at Easter, was of a most encouraging nature, as Mr. P. Winterscale's round for the Prince of Wales' medal, 82, and the Hon. D. Scott's 86 for the club gold medal, prove that there is more young blood coming on, and likely to develop into good golfers.

Farncombe made no return, or were over 100 net. A strong north-east gale made play extremely difficult.

SINGAPORE GOLF CLUB.

The monthly medal was played for on Saturday, the 14th April, when the winner turned up—for the second time in succession—in Mr. H. V. W. Vade, with a score of 87, less 3=84. Dr. Hinde was second with 96 less 8=88. Mr. H. E. Daunt, 97, less 8=89. Before the game about twenty-five members sat down to an excellent cold tiffin in the new club house. Messrs. Vade and Daunt have generously offered a prize value 50 dols. to be played for shortly, under match play rules. Messrs. John Little and Co. have also offered a prize valued 50 dols. to be played for after the races.

WORCESTERSHIRE GOLF CLUB.

The Whitsun meeting, held at Malvern on Monday, brought together more than the usual number of competitors. The course was in good order, and the weather fair, but continuous rain throughout the preceding night made the putting-greens in some cases slower than usual and generally more difficult. There was a certain amount of interest connected with the scratch prize (presented by Mr. A. M. Chance), as it stood to be won outright by either Mr. Foster or Mr. Paterson; and the scratch players sent in but poor returns, or no returns at all, and the prize was tied for at 88 by Mr. Foster and Mr. Toppin. Mr. Foster won the tie, and thereby retains permanent possession. The Whitsun challenge prize produced a tie between Messrs. Mylrea and Fraser, which was won, on playing off, by Mr. Fraser. The iron club prize, play for which is now over the full course of eighteen holes, was won by Mr. B. M. Smith. Scores:—
